

Labels of excellence

in the field of research

The University of Pau and the Pays de l'Adour is one of the French universities with the I-SITE (Initiatives Science Innovation, Territories, Economy) label. It has also been awarded several labels for its research activities.

The "Programme d'Investissements d'Avenir"

The aim of the "Programme d'Investissements d'Avenir" is to enable France to have an internationally visible Higher Education and Research sector that is capable of being competitive in the field of innovation and technology. This programme was initiated by the French government in 2010.

UPPA has obtained the following labels in the framework of this programme: